

Happy Halloween from All County Window Cleaning

Dear chris,

Just a few reminders for a safe and Happy Halloween.

Keep a Light on: The general rule candy seekers live by is simple: when a porch light's not lit, the candy has split; when a porch light is on, the candy ain't gone.

Remove any Obstacles: Filled with the excitement of candy, kids run up to porches and forget to watch where they're going. Instead of leaving things for them to dodge, or more likely trip over, make sure the path between the street and the candy is completely clear.

Take Care of Your Pets: Pets aren't always big fans of Halloween. Not only are some placed in costumes and paraded around the dog park, but the repeated knocks on the door and rings of the doorbell agitate them. Instead of subjecting them to a nervous breakdown, put them in a room where it will be quiet, and they won't be forced into perpetual guard duty.

Batteries: This is a great time to replace the batteries in flash lights and smoke alarms.

Should your house be defaced by any little ghouls or goblins* ....
